Hanoi and Surrounding Area Tour Programs (Private Tours)

Hanoi City Tour

Depart at 8.00am:

Passing through the Hanoi Old Quarter and Dong Xuan market we visit the ancient citadel and the Ho Chi Minh Mausoleum complex with Ho Chi Minhs stilt house and Museum.

Continuing on to the One pillar and Tran Quoc pagodas, and Quan Thanh temple.

Stop for lunch.

We drive through the Botanical gardens and the city taking in the scenery on the way to the Museum of Ethnology, and the Temple of Literature. Returning with a bus trip around Hoan Kiem Lake, we arrive in plenty of time to have dinner and see the famous Hanoi Water Puppets.

Perfume Pagoda (The Buddhism land)

Depart at 7.00am:

After a 2 hour trip we arrive at Perfume Pagoda - a complex of Pagodas and Buddhist shrines built into the limestone cliffs of Huong Tich Mountain - known as 'The Mountain of Fragrant Traces'.

Here we relax on board our rowing boat and set off on a 1 hour journey to Thien Tru quay.

On arrival we set off on a 3 hours round trip trekking up to the main cave Pagoda and returning to base were lunch will be served.

Stop for lunch.

After lunch we visit Thien Tru pagoda and return to Hanoi.

Hoa Lu – Tam Coc (Ancient Citadel)

Depart at 7.00am:

Arriving at Hoa Lu we visit its ancient citadel - The remains of temples, shrines and the Kings Palace.

It is a very peaceful place and the rural outlook is serene and pleasant.

Leaving Hoa Lu and approaching Tam Coc we are presented with the beginning of some breathtaking scenery.

Stop for lunch.

After lunch we board our bamboo rowing boats for a 2 hour tour passing through Tam Coc (Three Caves).

The caves Hang Ca 127m in length, Hang Giua 70m, and Hang Cuoi 40m are along with the huge rock formations jutting out of the rice paddies quite spectacular.

Return to Hanoi.
